Show Booking Email Templates, India

A set of email templates for different stages of the booking process. Adapt each one to the specific artist and venue. Never send a generic copy-paste, always customise the opening line at minimum.

Template 1: Initial Outreach To Venue / Promoter (Cold)

Subject: [Artist Name], Show Enquiry for [Month/Season]

Hi [Name],

I manage [Artist Name], a [genre] artist based in [city]. [One sentence about what makes this artist specific, a recent release, a notable show, a notable feature. Do not use generic phrases like "incredible talent".]

[Artist Name] is [monthly listener count] monthly listeners on Spotify and has performed at [2-3 notable venues or festivals]. [Link to most representative track or video.]

I'd love to explore whether there's an opportunity for [Artist Name] to perform at [Venue Name] in [Month range]. We're targeting [city] as a priority market this season and [Venue Name] feels like the right fit for the audience [Artist Name] is building.

Could you let me know: _____

1. Whether you're booking for [Month/Season] and if so, what your programming focus is? 2. The best way to submit a proper proposal if there's interest?

Happy to send an EPK, rider, and any other materials you need.

Thanks, [Your Name] Manager, [Artist Name] [Phone / WhatsApp] [Website or streaming link]

Template 2: Follow-Up After No Response (10-14 Days Later)

Subject: Re: [Artist Name], Show Enquiry

Hi [Name],

Following up on my note from [date]. I know inboxes get busy.

[Artist Name] is still available for [Month range] in [City] and I wanted to make sure this landed before the slot gets taken elsewhere.

[One new piece of information since last email, a new release, a show announcement, a press mention.]

If now isn't the right time, happy to stay on your radar for a future season.

Notes On Booking Email Etiquette In India

1. WhatsApp is often more effective than email for first contact with venue managers and local promoters. Use email to formalise agreements. 2. Always follow up. One email rarely gets a response. Two or three, spaced 10-14 days apart, is normal. 3. Name-dropping works. If a mutual connection suggested you reach out, lead with that. 4. Attach an EPK only if specifically requested in a first cold email, it can trigger spam filters and feels presumptuous. Offer it instead. 5. For festivals, apply 6-9 months ahead of the festival date. Most Indian festivals programme well in advance. 6. Keep fees confidential in email unless in a direct negotiation thread, CC'd parties should not see your rate card.
